

TIMES IN LIFE

There are times in life
when things seem wrong.
There are times in life
when the days seem long.

There are times in life
we don't understand.
There are times in life
we are waves on the sand.

There are times in life
we ask "Lord, why?"
There are times in life
we don't want to say "bye."

But there are times in life
when God feels near.
And there are times in life
without the fear.

And there are times in life
the need is met.
Your heart is full
you can bet.

I said "that's me!"
as I read,
"I can do all things"
Paul once said.

I've been both places,
the good and the bad.
The peaks and valleys,
the happy the sad.

My heart so warm
these times in my life.
So sweetly in love,

with my wife.

But He took her home
and no one knows
Why He allows
such painful blows.

The sorrow was felt
so deep with fear.
"Where are you Lord?"
I'm hurting here!

But then as the valley
Seems so long, dark and deep.
I rose through the clouds
To that glorious peak.

Yes, the road is hard,
from down on the sand.
but the road is upward
when put in God's hand.

For me, a blessing
to be restored.
A gift from Heaven,
straight from the Lord.

Her name is Marty,
So tender and pure.
So strong and beautiful
So soft and demure.

She speaks with a wisdom
that only few may hold.
She speaks with tenderness
and yet so bold.

She will be mine,
for the rest of our life.
Soon to be one

as I make her my wife.

For the Lord has chosen,
through no merit of mine.
To bless me twice
like water to wine.

This time of my life
in flight like a dove
not forgetting the valley
nor the previous love.

But thankful for
all the joys and strife.
And blessed to have
these times in my life.
