

To trust the plan

It is easy to trust,
when things are great.
But what about,
when God seems late.

What about,
when He changes your life.
What about,
when He takes your wife.

What about,
when your left here.
To raise two children,
in lonely fear.

Can you trust,
that Gods in control.
When you feel like,
only half of a whole.

The answer is yes,
we must learn to trust.
Good things or bad things,
trust is a must.

For if we say,
we are in Gods hands.
We must always learn,
To trust the plan.
